CONSTABLE DENNIS DOWLING CONSTABLE OF THE YEAR 2017, Ron Williams, President – Arizona Constables Association

The Arizona Constables Association has honored Constable Dennis Dowling with the 2017 Constable of the Year Award. This award is given annually to the constable in the state who has best represented his office and justice court precinct.

Constable Dowling's commitment to the citizens of the Yarnell-Bagdad precinct has been a great example of how rural court precincts can best help their constituents. The Award recognizes his commitment to performing his duties in an exemplary fashion, focusing on protecting and helping everyone in your precinct, and prioritizing the use of taxpayer funds efficiently. He is always the first to tell us that this is nothing more than a reflection of the common-sense values of where he lives.

In 2015, he worked to help create the Constable's Warrant Reduction Program in Yavapai County. By combining common-sense with hard work, the result is almost 150 people in Yavapai county have avoided being arrested for minor violations. All it took was vision and the will to do what he was elected to do. This not only helped those individuals from being arrested for minor offenses, but also has kept taxpayers from unnecessarily paying for them to be housed in the county jail.

We are grateful that Constable Dowling has been an active leader in our organization. His willingness to share his and your values across the state sets him apart. He is always supportive of his peers, as well as being willing to listen for ideas he can bring back to improve your precinct.

These are among the reasons that the Arizona Constables Association has recognized Dennis Dowling with our highest award.

We thank him for his service. Most important we thank you for electing him. For more information call 928-771-3164.
